Mrs. William Sinclair received the distressing news this morning that her little granddaughter Mary Isabel, the 18-months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Holmes of Canaveral, was severely burned by upsetting a cup of boiling hot coffee, spilling it all over her face, neck and chest. The little one was taken at once to her grandfather, Dr. Holmes, at Sharps. Her recovery is doubtful. The many friends of the family in Ocala will be pained to learn of the accident and hope to hear more encouraging news soon.

Call and see the weekly war pictures from the London Graphic on view at Williams' Candy and Cigar Store, hole in the wall, on Magnolia street. Home made cream candies, 20c and 35c boxes. Pure and delicious. 26-1m

HOW MRS. HARROD GOT RID OF HER STOMACH TROUBLE

"I suffered with stomach trouble for years and tried everything I heard of, but the only relief I got was temporary until last spring I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them at our drug store. I got immediate relief from that dreadful heaviness after eating and from pain in the stomach," writes Mrs. Linda Harrod, Fort Wayne, Ind. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Runaway June

and, tiptoeing down the gangway, stopped at June's door and listened. He could hear an occasional stifled sob as June sat amid the soft cushions of the couch. Before her, through a half open door, could be seen a glimpse of a snowy white bathroom, and in the adjoining little pale blue boudoir stood June's own ingang!

Ned! That brief sight of him had filled June's whole soul with longing. Poor little runaway bride! There were the rattle of a donkey engine and the scraping of chains on the yacht Hilarity. The anchor was coming up, and there was an instant change in the easy rocking of the craft. She shuddered, and then there was the sound of seething water as the Hilarity gathered headway. June was on her feet in an instant. She ran to the porthole and gazed out at the barely moving lights along shore. The portholes were too small to let her shoulders through. She ran to the door and opened it stealthily, then closed it and held the knob as Tommy Thoms and Orin Cunningham danced past in the salon.

The alert ear of Gilbert Blye caught the click of that latch, slight as it was, and his eyes glowed; he motioned significantly toward the corridor, and Edwards, reaching up, said something in the ear of Mrs. Villard. A slight frown crossed her brow, but she rose instantly and went down the gangway to the door of June's stateroom.

She knocked, but there was no answer. "June!" she called. "June, dear!"

No answer. Mrs. Villard listened. No sound. She went back slowly to the salon.

"You'll never make that child one of us," and she shook her head.

June sat on the couch in her stateroom with her hands locked upon her knees, staring into the white silence of brightness formed by the tiling of the bathroom, and while she pondered on what she should do Marie and Henri reached the city and stopped at a telegraph office. When they came out of that place a short, wide, thick man who had been waddling down the street, with a blunt stub of a cigar in one corner of his mouth and a look of habitual furtiveness in his little eyes, started abruptly at sight of Marie, and when the touring car started the short wide man hung on behind, his cigar stub firmly clamped between his teeth.

The doorbell rang at the Moore home in Brynport. Stern John Moore, reading his paper beneath the portrait of June, looked up quickly, and there was a slight tremor at the corner of his paper. Aunt Debby's voice was heard: "Why, it's Mr. Ned and Miss Mrs. Why, good evenin'. The folks is to home."

Stern John Moore listened with silent attention while Mrs. Moore, her hand upon her breast, stole the emotions to which Iris Blethering gave full play as the "kidnaping" was described. There was but one conclusion among the men, and Ned, composing his voice as he passed from the mention of Blye, stated that conclusion. "It is a matter for the police," he declared and picked up the telephone. "Our daughter is in danger," said the grave voice of John Moore.

"It is a matter for the police," he declared.

BEST THING FOR A BILIOUS ATTACK

"On account of my confinement in the printing office I have for years been a chronic sufferer from indigestion and liver trouble. A few weeks ago I had an attack that was so severe that I was not able to go to the case for two days. Failing to get any relief from any other treatment, I took three of Chamberlain's Tablets and the next day I felt like a new man," writes H. C. Bailey, editor Carolina News, Chapin, S. C. The Real Suffrage Thought of Women

Motherhood is the thought uppermost in woman's mind. And with it, of course, comes the question of comfort, of help, of external remedy, "Mother's Friend." It is gently applied to the surface muscles. These are lubricated, toned, made pliable so they stretch as nature requires without the strain and pain on cords and ligaments. This influence extends through the myriad of nerves to deeper surfaces, the internal organs. And thus a period of repose must reflect itself not only in the mind of the mother, but upon the babe to come.

Young mothers who have used "Mother's Friend" have written to say how rejoiced they were at the absence of morning sickness, extreme nervousness, and other distresses of which they had heard and feared. Get a bottle of "Mother's Friend" at any drug store. Simply apply it over the stomach muscles and rest assured of perfect safety and comfort day and night. Write to Bradfield Regulator, 408 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their handsome and instructive book.

DON'T WAIT

Take Advantage of an Ocala Citizen's Experience

When the back begins to ache, Don't wait until backache becomes chronic; Till kidney troubles develop; Till urinary troubles destroy night's rest.

Profit by an Ocala citizen's experience. Mrs. A. E. Holly, 113 S. Second St., Ocala, says: "I was having a great deal of trouble with my kidneys. The kidney secretions were unnatural. My back was sore and lame and every time I stooped, a catch shot across my loins. My feet and ankles were swollen and the flesh underneath my eyes was puffed up. I tried several kidney medicines and even took a doctor's prescription, but nothing did me any good until I started taking Doan's Kidney Pills. I improved from the first and was soon cured."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Holly had. Foster-McBarn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv. 4

Gets Right Twist On Rheumatism

Makes Short Work of Cleaning Out Your Entire System—Aches and Pains Go Fast.

In S. S. S. You Get a Twist on Rheumatism that Settles It.

Many a rheumatic sufferer has been to the drug store for a bottle of S. S. S. and been handed something claimed to be "Just as good." Truly, to ask for bread and be given a stone is still in practice. If you are troubled with rheumatism in any form be sure to use S. S. S. and note its wonderful influence. S. S. S. has the peculiar action of soaking through the intestines directly into the blood. In five minutes its influence is at work in every artery, vein and tiny capillary. Every membrane, every organ of the body, every emunctory becomes in effect a filter to strain the blood of impurities. The stimulating properties of S. S. S. compel the skin, liver, bowels, kidneys, bladder to all work to the end of casting out every irritating, every pain-inflicting atom of poison; it dislodges by irrigation all accumulations in the joints, causes acid accretions to dissolve, renders them neutral and scatters those peculiar formations in the nerve centers that cause such mystifying and often baffling rheumatic pains. And best of all this remarkable remedy is welcome to the weakest stomach. If you have dragged yourself until your stomach is nearly paralyzed, you will be astonished to find that S. S. S. gives no stimulation but goes right to work. This is because it is a pure vegetable infusion, is taken naturally into your blood just as pure air is inhaled naturally into your lungs. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today, and ask for S. S. S. You may depend upon it that the store that sells you what you ask for is a good place to trade. Write to the Swift Specific Co., 204 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. for their Book on Rheumatism.
